Meeting called to order: 6:33 p.m. with Kevin Sareault serving as chair.

Minutes

- Minutes for Jan. 24 were not available. Approval deferred until next meeting.
- There was no February meeting because of a combination of factors, not the least of which was weather.

Master Plan

- Updates received from Toole Design Group regarding draft alternatives plan. Sam provided printed handouts to committee members. Feedback due back to Sam Jensen by April 11.

Bike Rodeo

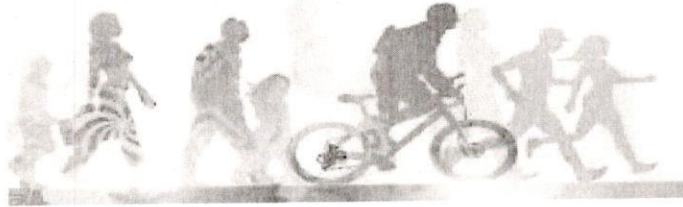

- St. John's Episcopal Church; fire and police departments, including citizens police academy volunteers; MassDOT; and Barnstable County Sheriff's Department bike squad are all confirmed and ready to participate.
- Just need commitment from bike shop. Kevin to reach out.
- Event is April 28 at Wing School. 9-12. David to send Sean a flyer so latter can post event to Facebook page.

2018 Planning

- Sean read through planning document (attached) that outlines ideas for riding and walking events the committee could collaborate on with other town departments and businesses. Will discuss further at next meeting and commit to an event for May.
- SandwichFest: Sam to ask Ralph Vitacco if he can advocate on our behalf to SandwichFest committee to help us waive the participation fee. Event is June 30, 10-4.
- Training: Cycling Savvy has potential dates in May or June. Review further at next

Walk, Bike
and EXPLORE

meeting.

Town Projects

- Partially funded for Sandy Neck sidewalk project through Complete Streets program. Providing half the construction funds. Aiming for start in the fall.
- Service Road: Slowly coming along. Paul Tilton working hard to make progress on it. Working on 25% design process right now.

Next meeting: April 25.

Adjournment: 7:28 p.m.
