Absent: Patricia Piva, Dave Polidor

1. Approval of Minutes for 5/17/2017.
2. Public Comment, None.
3. Golf Directors Report: The club is $34,000 behind last year, attributed to the weather but not bad. On Budget for June of last year. Golf operations manager position has been Filled, Juliet Swift will be working 40 Hours, weekends included. John suggests the club keep the rates the same as last year. Will meet with selectman at the rate hearing in July. Handed out the pricing structures of the competing golf courses. Membership is 300, same as 2016. Scotches scheduled for 6/24, Sunday afternoon, gold tees. Course in great shape, wet June helped the course but hurt the revenue. John will prepare a rain day graph by month to track lost revenue. Should show a profit by July. John will input the price parameters for Golf Now. Plymouth, Lower Cape, Upper Cape media blitz July 1st. Discount for women's golf to compete with Holly Ridge, eight new women are playing in the Monday night league, $21 w cart.
4. During the week, there will be a Ladies day, not set yet, currently SHGC rates are cheaper than Holly Ridge. Will work with Mark on a possible Nine and Dine. Open house for all Sandwich women, date TBA. Promotional venues will be Facebook, Twitter, News Papers and SCAT. Driveway paved, the finish work will take place in the fall. Working on a price to seal coat the parking lot. Fire truck auction the second week in June.
5. Committee voted on and accepted no change in rate.
6. Meeting adjourned, next meeting 7/12/2017.
